CATALOGUE OF
THE LIBRARY OF THE
ANTIQUARIAN BOOKSELLERS
ASSOCIATION
FOREWORD

The ABA library commemorated its fiftieth anniversary by making the catalogue accessible online.

Arrangement is by author (or editor) throughout except in the case of catalogues of libraries or other collections which are normally listed under owners. All members were sent a copy of the catalogue when it was first produced, either electronically or as a hard copy. Searching the catalogue for keywords (such as the subject or author) is possible through either Microsoft Word or Word Perfect programmes.

The library is accommodated at Roger J. Treglown, Antiquarian and Rare Books, Sunderland House, Sunderland Street, Macclesfield, Cheshire, SK11 6JF. Phone:01625 618978, e-mail treglownrarebooks&googlemail.com. The library may be visited, viewed, and consulted there during normal working hours, usually 0930 – 1800 hrs. If a visit is intended a prior phone call is advised. The Librarian will attempt to respond to queries from members of the Association as soon as possible.

The library collection continues to expand with purchases of new books. It owes its origin to the generosity of Arthur Swann of New York. Subsequently gifts by members in their capacity of author, compiler or publisher have done much to build it up. Needless to say all such gifts - reference books, specialised catalogues of lasting value, histories of firms, book trade memoirs (published or unpublishable) - continue to be welcome.

Roger Treglown.

Honorary Librarian.
